

Incubate Creativity at Your Library
WebJunction, April 2016

Who am I?

Laura Damon-Moore

Co-Founder, Library as Incubator Project

Community Engagement
Librarian, Madison Public
Library - Madison, WI

Laura (right) & LAIP Co-
Founder Erinn Batykerfer

ABOUT
SUBMIT
CONTACT
DONATE
TEAM
PRESS

SEARCH

ARTISTS

WRITERS

PERFORMING ARTS

ESSAYS

LIBRARIES

COLLECTIONS

LIBRARIAN RESOURCES

OUR BOOK!

LIBRARIES

Pop des Fleurs Winter Pop-up Garden: Still Poppin'

by ERINN BATYKEFER on Feb 23, 2016 • No Comments

by Suzy Waldo In my last post I wrote about how the beautiful Pop des Fleurs project came to Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh- South Side and then became a system-wide project. If I had a nickel for every time I thought to myself, "What were you thinking?!" I could buy a...

LATEST ENTRIES

GET CONNECTED

 RSS Feed

 Twitter followers

 Facebook

 Youtube

CHECK OUT OUR BOOK FROM COFFEE HOUSE PRESS!

@IArtLibraries

Library as Incubator Project

IArtLibraries

How artists use libraries

Collaborate

Collections

Materials

Library as Incubator
@IArtLibraries

Are you sitting on a pile of old #catalogcards? Artist Vickie Moore will turn them into art! owl.li/DJrCX ow.ly/i/7rAzd

11/9/14, 8:55 AM

Space

Subject

A word about creativity

- Creativity needs to be encouraged, at the very moment when the structure of our education system is doing much to discourage it.
- Creativity is not “for” a “special sort of people.” It is for and inherent in everyone.
- Creativity is a process. It is a process that can be taught.
- Cultivating a space for creativity is about “climate control.” Given the right circumstances, opportunity, and attitude, creativity has a shot.

Cultivating a “climate of creativity”

- Permission
- Collections: using what you have in a new way
- Programs: hands-on, participatory, collaborative
- Partners
- Space: inviting patrons to use the physical library to get creative

Programming: providing time, place, permission

Drawing tables at Night Light, Madison Public Library. Photo by Angela Richardson.

A quick word about PARTNERS

Who are YOUR favorite partners?

Learn from local experts: The Bubbler at Madison Public Library

Kanji drawing workshop at Madison Public Library.

Learn from local experts: The Bubbler at Madison Public Library

Screenprinting workshop at Madison Public Library.

Collaborative art-making programs

Flower-making program for Pittsburgh's Pop des Fleurs Winter Gardens.

Collaborative art-making programs

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh's Pop des Fleurs Winter Gardens.

Collaborative art-making programs

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh's Pop des Fleurs Winter Gardens.

Collaborative art-making programs

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh's Pop des Fleurs Winter Gardens.

Collaborative art-making programs

Falmouth Public Library's "Library Yarns" community art project.

Simple and scalable programs

Blackout poetry from Make Blackout Poetry blog.

Simple and scalable programs

Drawing prompts by Angela Richardson, Bubbler Artist-in-Residence, 2016.

Simple and scalable programs

Drink and Draw, Harmony Bar & Grill, 2016. Photo by Angela Richardson.

The Book to Art Club

www.booktoartclub.org

THE BOOK TO ART CLUB

An IArtLibraries Project

ABOUT SIGN UP GUIDE MEMBERS TITLES BLOG CONTACT

Read. Talk. Make.

The Night Circus by Erin Morgenstern

Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children by Ransom Riggs

A Tale for the Time Being by Ruth Ozeki

The Art Forger by B.A. Shapiro

- Madison Chapter -

THE BOOK TO ART CLUB

An IArtLibraries Project

ABOUT

SIGN UP

GUIDE

MEMBERS

TITLES

BLOG

CONTACT

Start here!

Read. Talk. Make.

THE BOOK TO ART CLUB

An IArtLibraries Project

ABOUT

SIGN UP

GUIDE

MEMBERS

TITLES

BLOG

CONTACT

Dayton Avenue Elementary School Chapter

Eastern Maine Community College Chapter

Kenai, Alaska Chapter

Lawrence, Kansas Chapter (Teens)

Madison, Wisconsin Chapter

Milwaukee, Wisconsin Chapter

Action item: Maker/Creative scene analysis

- Survey your community.
- Find out who's doing what.
- Talk to them. Ask how the library can support the work they do.
- Let those people lead to you to others.
- Take your time. Start small. Embrace this work as an ongoing process.

Creative programming resources

- Programming Librarian, programminglibrarian.org, @PLIGALA, Programming Librarian Interest Group on Facebook
- Library as Incubator Project, Program tag
- The Bubbler at Madison Public Library, madisonbubbler.org, @MadisonBubbler
- Lynda Barry, <http://thenearsightedmonkey.tumblr.com>

Where do you find your creative program ideas?

Make the most of your collections

Watercolor illustration
by Chu Chia Chi.
Inspired by the Scotland Collection at the Edinburgh Central Library.

Color Our Collections Week

Make it a community-wide event

GIF It Up submission by Darren Cole (DPLA)

Banned Book Trading Card by Lindsey Yankey (Lawrence Public Library)

What do you have in tucked-away places?

Orphan photos can provide lots of inspiration and a place to start.

Idea share: What do you have in your collection that could inspire patrons to make something new?

Sharing the work: Using the library as an arts venue

Kristen Hammargren presents her one-woman show, Discovering Austen, in libraries and other performance venues.

Sharing the work: Using the library as an arts venue

Alabama's Sanspointe Dance Company in "Life on a Shelf," a modern dance performance inspired by and performed in libraries.

Sharing the work: Activating the library space

Albany Public Library hosts an exhibition called Homespun, which made use of library spaces beyond the traditional gallery wall.

Sharing the work: Activating the library space

Sharing the work: Activating the library space

Watercolor painting installation by Carla Lobmeier, NYPL Mid-Manhattan Library.

Sharing the work: Activating the library space

Immortal Silence at the Glasgow School of Art Library, a series of “sound works” installed throughout the library by Justyna Ataman.

Action item: Invite the artists in

- Find a partner (an arts guild, commission, or board member) to help you craft the language for a Call for Participation
- Set up four times for artists to come in and explore the library
- Keep an open mind. How can you move from “no” to “yes”?
 - Caveat: balance with also knowing the physical and policy limitations of the space--can be tricky.
- Document the process--keep track of paperwork and policies you've crafted for future reference
- Document the end product--how will you share the active art space with the public? Art opening, ongoing exhibition, photo or video documentation

Idea share: where is the underused/under-activated space in your library?

Cultivating a “climate of creativity”

- Permission
- Collections: using what you have in a new way
- Programs: hands-on, participatory, collaborative
- Partners
- Space: inviting patrons to use the physical library to get creative

- ABOUT
- SUBMIT
- CONTACT
- DONATE
- TEAM
- PRESS

SEARCH

- ARTISTS
- WRITERS
- PERFORMING ARTS
- ESSAYS
- LIBRARIES
- COLLECTIONS
- LIBRARIAN RESOURCES
- OUR BOOK!

LIBRARIES

Pop des Fleurs Winter Pop-up Garden: Still Poppin'

by ERINN BATYKEFER on Feb 23, 2016 • No Comments

by Suzy Waldo In my last post I wrote about how the beautiful Pop des Fleurs project came to Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh- South Side and then became a system-wide project. If I had a nickel for every time I thought to myself, "What were you thinking!?" I could buy a...

LATEST ENTRIES

GET CONNECTED

- RSS Feed
- Twitter followers
- Facebook
- Youtube

CHECK OUT OUR BOOK FROM COFFEE HOUSE PRESS!

@IArtLibraries

Library as Incubator Project

IArtLibraries