

Public Libraries and Access to Justice

Future Ideas and Evaluation

- 1. What are the biggest barriers that you will be facing in this process?
- 2. What kinds of tools and materials would you like developed to assist in this process?
- 3. What kinds of gatherings would you find helpful in this process?
- 4. What kinds of networking would you find helpful in this process?
- 5. Is there anything that the Network can do to help you build state partnerships and beyond?

Copyright National Center for State Courts, 2010.

Developed by the Self-Represented Litigation Network of the National Center for State Courts, with Funding from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation to the National Center for State Courts, and in cooperation with the Legal Services Corporation. Points of view and opinions stated in this document do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the National Center for State Courts, or of the Legal Services Corporation, or of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, or of any co-sponsor or of any participant in, or funder of, the Self Represented Litigation Network.

Evaluation

1. Please rate each of the sessions and the conference overall on a scale of 1-9 (with 9 being the highest) for both the session and the materials in terms of utility and helpfulness.

	Session Title	Session Score	Materials Score
All	Conference Overall
1	Welcome and Introduction
2	The Role of Public Libraries in Assisting Patrons
3	Online Legal Problem Solving
4	Team Meeting Time
5	What Public Librarians Can Do: Ethical and Legal Issues
6	Technical and Privacy Issues in Public Library Legal Information Services
7	The Roles of Public Libraries in Access to Justice
8	Legal Aid, Law Library, and Court Collaborations
9	Workshop on Customizing the FAQ
10	Role Playing of Teaching the Materials
11	Planning for the Future

2. What was best about the Conference?

3. What would you have most liked us to improve?

Thank you for your help

