

Public Libraries and Access to Justice:
11. Planning for the Future

Prepared by the Self-Represented Litigation Network
General Package Editor: Richard Zorza
Copyright 2010, National Center for State Courts

Developed by the Self-Represented Litigation Network of the National Center for State Courts, with funding from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation to the National Center for State Courts, and in cooperation with the Legal Services Corporation. Points of view and opinions stated in this document do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the National Center for State Courts, or of the Legal Services Corporation, or of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, or of any co-sponsor or of any participant in, or funder of, the Self-Represented Litigation Network.

Logistics

- Plan Sheets
- Evaluations

Discussion Leaders

- Names

List here.

Suggest a variety of key stakeholders.

Where Are We?
The Status of Libraries and
Access to Justice

- Some quick perspectives
- Your thoughts

The Mini-Grants

- The vision
- Your thoughts and ideas
- Your questions
- The process outlined
 - Application distribution by e-mail
 - Return to us

Use only if you have a mini-grant system in your group.

Some Future Planning Questions

What are the biggest barriers that you will be facing in this process?

What kinds of tools and materials would you like developed to assist in this process?

What kinds of gatherings would you find helpful in this process?

What kinds of networking would you find helpful in this process?

Is there anything that the Network can do to help you build state partnerships and beyond?

Finally

- How do we maintain networking?

Thanks and Final Logistics

- Webinar Sheet
- Evaluations
- Plans
- Thanks
- Hope for the Future