2017 HOURS NEEDED AT MINIMUM WAGE NEEDED TO AFFORD RENT

In no state can a minimum wage worker afford a ONE-BEDROOM rental home at Fair Market Rent, working a standard 40-hour work week, without paying more than 30% of their income.

Hours at minimum wage to afford a one-bedroom rental home

- 60 hours per week or less
- 61 to 78 hours per week
- 79 hours per week or more

This state’s minimum wage exceeds the federal minimum wage

YOUTH

Youth on their own make up a significant but often invisible subset of people experiencing homelessness

FAMILIES

Families with young children face unwanted disruption to education with unstable housing

VETS

Vets make up a small percentage of PEH but often have complex physical and mental health issues

The Library

- The Carnegie Public Library serves 8,500 in the City, total 14,500 in the Las Animas County.

- The library is one of the primary service providers for people experiencing homelessness in the community. We provide: laundry vouchers, food. We act as a day shelter for many patrons. We have the only public restrooms in the downtown.

- We made 700 new library accounts in 2017 and 2016. Large # of people moving to Colorado (and Trinidad) has created a rental shortage. Trinidad Housing Authority averages a 22-month waiting list.

Community Services

- Soup Kitchen: serves 1,720 meals monthly, one meal each weekday
- Community Center: provided 2,500 free showers in 2017
- ACTS (Assisting Community through Service): provides immediate need services like food, gas, utility assistance
- Colorado Workforce Center, local churches, addiction recovery, hospitals
- We do not have: Salvation Army, United Way, etc.
What does homelessness look like in your library?

Barriers to Library Access

Barrier: Library may require proof of address to get a card. This discourages patrons who aren’t able to give a permanent address.

Solution: Create a policy and/or procedure to include people without a permanent address (share your examples)
Barriers to Library Access

- Barrier: Patrons who are homeless or highly mobile move homes frequently and are sometimes evicted without much notice. This means library materials are often not renewed or returned, in turn creating an insurmountable financial barrier. This is especially hard on children.

- Solution: Eliminate fines, at the very least on children’s materials
Create Common Language

- Speak the same language
  - With staff and your board, agree on shared terms. At the CPL we say “patrons experiencing homelessness” unless we know names.
  - Get to know your patrons’ names
  - With patrons, encourage perception changes by using these terms, and explaining why it might be hurtful to use the words “bum” or “hobo”

- Get in front of City Council, write for your local paper

Humanize Each Other

- Create a task force (including staff and patrons?)

- Host a service fair

- Provide opportunities for staff to leave the library and visit service organizations
3 S’s: sleep, stink, and stuff

At the CPL: Behavior that disrupts or hinders use of the Library is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, offensive odor, loud or boisterous behavior, public indecency, drunkenness or drug intoxication, running, and fighting.

➡️ Snoring can be loud! - when waking up a patron, don’t touch them. If their snoring isn’t disturbing anyone, we allow our patrons to sleep. When you’re camping by a fire or wandering the streets all night, not getting sleep is stressful.

➡️ Hygiene - give your staff a script. At CPL we offer laundry vouchers, the community center has showers.

➡️ Stuff - we have lockers and need bigger ones.
“Hello. We’ve had a complaint from a patron about a strong odor. You might not realize this, but the odor seems to be coming from your clothing. Before you can continue to share this space with others, we need you to clean up. How can I help you do that today?”
Tips for Response & Safety

- Create a resource list – even if it seems like there aren’t many in your town
- Keep a list of phone numbers, know when to call 911. Write an Emergency Action Plan.
- Know what your patron code of conduct is. Enforce it.
- Stick to priorities. Give your staff autonomy. Support your team through difficult interactions.
Community Connections

In Trinidad, we have support from City administration, City Council, Library Friends and Foundation, and other organizations.

Community perceptions of the library as being “unsafe” or a “homeless hangout” can affect when, and how others support the library.

What do you do when you don’t have community support?

Make connections with support organizations.

In the chat box, share your partners. What works well? Challenges?
PATRONS
Patrons are influenced by their life experiences and social systems.

LIBRARIES
Libraries have a place in those social systems.

STAFF
Library staff members are influenced by all of this, too.

Reflective practice is a method of reviewing an experience to process it through thinking and feeling in order to learn from it and improve your work.
REFLECTIVE PRACTICE

- Get coffee with a colleague
- Write in a private journal
- Practice using a tool with a colleague
- Make reflection part of your work practice & goals
- Use a tool on your own
What happened? How did you feel during and after?

What was good or bad about how things went? What was really going on?

What did you learn about yourself and others? What will you do differently?
