Why have policies?

• Protect staff and public
  • Primary tool for staff to do their jobs effectively and allow staff decision-making power
  • Offers the public a set of expectations for the library and ensures that they are treated equitably

• Customer service

• Public education

• Cover legal and ethical issues

• Lend credibility to organization

• State Library standards may have policy implications

• Mechanism for administration and staff to translate library priorities into action

• Support for staff and board in the event of legal action
Inclusion begins internally

• Include frontline staff in policy development
• Suggest improvements, changes
• Understand process
• Ask questions and seek clarification
• Explain and implement policies for public
• Ongoing training

History and Evolution

Policies vs. Procedures

- Proactive vs Reactive
- Inclusive Language
Inclusion Commitment

At the North Liberty Library we commit to treating every individual with dignity, and respect. We strive to create a safe, inviting environment where inclusion and belonging are a natural part of the culture. These values are reflected in our policies and in our service.
Commitment to inclusion

- Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, & Access (IDEA)
- Dignity & Respect
- Belonging is Natural
- Acknowledgement of Barriers
Defining Principles

Access
We provide information and resources equally and equitably to all individuals through a variety of delivery methods.

Diversity
We value a diverse world and strive to both mirror and reflect that diversity by providing a full range of resources and services to the communities we serve.

Service
We provide service with empathy, compassion, and excellence. We continually seek to enhance our professional knowledge and skills through learning opportunities for all library staff. So that we might give our best to the community, library staff are supported so they might achieve a work-life balance that looks like success for their individual lives.

Values

Civic Commons
Our library is a safe and welcoming space where all people belong, whether to meet and interact with others or to experience whatever they are seeking when they visit. We know that investing in our civic assets (libraries, parks, plazas, and trails) creates opportunities for connecting people of all backgrounds, cultivates trust and counters the trends of social and economic fragmentation in cities and neighborhoods.

Literacy
We believe in providing avenues for patrons to improve their literacy skills in order to meet their personal goals and fulfill their roles as caregivers, citizens, and workers which in turn creates an informed citizenry. By providing free and equal access to information for all people in the communities we serve, we uphold the first amendment right of free expression.

Social Responsibility
Libraries are fundamental to democratic societies with broad social responsibilities to support efforts to inform and educate people on these critical issues of society, to encourage people to examine the many views on and the facts regarding each problem, and to assist in bettering or solving these problems. Our library is an essential public good.

Policy Examples

- Disruptive Behavior Flow Chart
- Importance of Consistency in Training
DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIORS PROCEDURE FLOWCHART

Defined as: behaviors that are disruptive, but do not pose a substantial threat to the safety of others, right of others to use and enjoy library facilities, and to library resources and/or facilities.

- Adapted from ALA Guidelines for the Development of Policies and Procedures

Examples of problematic behaviors:

- Talking loudly/yelling
- Playing music/games too loud
- Running
- Making messes

Disruptive Behavior
A group of kids are talking too loudly, it looks like they're having fun

Staff intervention: 1st warning
Staff calmly approaches kids, smiles, and says "Hey everyone. It sounds like you're having a lot of fun! What's going on? I want in." (Give kids a chance to tell you.) "That does sound fun! So unfortunately, your noise level is getting a little too high. Do you think you could keep your voices down? Thank you!"

Behavior stops – hooray!
Staff calmly approaches kids, smiles, and politely says "Thank you for stopping!"

Behavior continues
The kids continue talking loudly

Staff intervention: 2nd warning
Staff repeats the warning or intervention steps as necessary to address the behavior and ensure a safe and respectful library environment.

Inclusion and Belonging in Action

- Strategic Planning
- Fine-Free & Account Reconciliation
- Meeting Individuals Where They Are

“We thrive by being inclusive and equitable. The North Liberty Library values and is committed to serving all members of our community in quiet and in uncertain times. Libraries have long been places to empower people through knowledge, and to do so equitably. So as our FY21 story unfolds and we continue to recreate and reinvent how we serve you, our mission holds true: Your Library: A place to be, connect, enrich, create, thrive.”

– Jennie Garner, Library Director

MEETING ROOM POLICY

Please note:
The North Liberty Library does not discriminate or condone discrimination against any person on the basis of race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, housing status, ability or ethnicity. Granting permission for meeting rooms does not constitute endorsement of any group’s, or affiliated groups’, viewpoints. Iowa’s Civil Rights laws forbid discrimination on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, religion, or disability.

Terms of use may not apply to library or City of North Liberty events. External advance reservations will not be cancelled without prior notification of at least six weeks.

The library reserves the right to refuse use of the rooms to individuals or groups who do not adhere to library policies or meeting room terms of use or are disruptive to normal library operations.

The library director or designee shall have final authority regarding use of library meeting rooms.
